

KSS & WVSS Spiritual Services Proposal—ECK Classes

◆ Arahata's name _____ Date _____

◆ Assisant Arahata's name (if applicable) _____

◆ Location of event _____
Include city/state/venue or Zoom or Zoom hybrid with city/state/venue

◆ Type of ECK class (see list below). _____
List of types: Book discussion (include 1, 2, or 3 from ECK Classes guidelines, p. 8), Living Word discussion, Satsang , or Satsang Intensive.

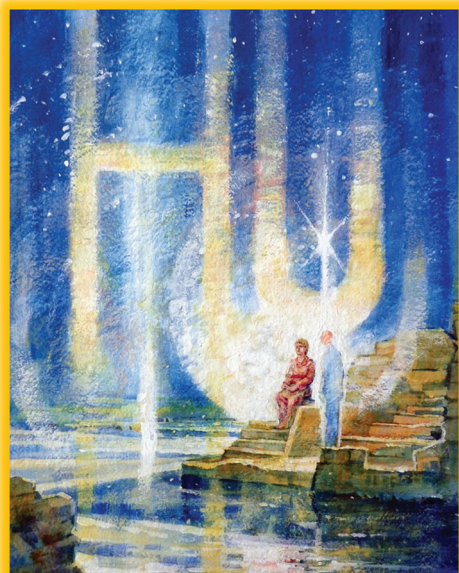

◆ ECK class name (see list below). _____
Book discussion (include name), Living Word discussion (include name of periodical and issue date), Satsang class (include discourse name).

◆ Day/Date(s) of event _____ Time _____
For dates of events starting and ending in the same month, list them all. For events occurring over more than one month, such as a Satsang class, list the first date through the last date and include when the date falls within the month, (e.g., Jan. 21, 2021 – Dec. 16, 2021, 3rd Thursday).

Trainings: If you have completed ECK Arahata Training, indicate the year of certification (2015 or after) _____. Please attach a copy of your certification or verify with your Spiritual Services Director that a copy is already on file. ECK Arahata Training for recertification is required if you received training prior to 2015.

Instructions: Complete form, save, attach to email, and return to Spiritual Services Directors, Deb Joy (KY) or Judy Pharr (WV), at debjoyKSS@gmail.com or WVSSJudy@gmail.com. Contact Deb or Judy for questions.

◆ Approved by _____ Date _____
Spiritual Services Director

Leading Seekers Gently to God

Service as an Arahata may take you outside the formal Satsang class. The Mahanta enlists you as a teacher for those in your community who want enlightenment. But it may take awhile for them to recognize Soul Travel or the Light and Sound of ECK. You must lead these seekers gently along the path of God.

—Sri Harold Klemp, ECK Arahata Book, p. 2